Club Notes

Yet another draw, with Shrewsbury, but we are sure our supporters will agree with us that on this occasion we were unlucky not to win. The visitors' defence faced a continual attack during the second half and it was most fortunate to concede only one goal in that period. Luck and the framework of the goal saved the visitors frequently.

Unfortunately the mud and wet grounds are still with us. It is a great pity from Swindon's point of view that this Winter has provided so much wet weather. It was more than ever necessary to have dry firm grounds for our young ball-playing team. Undoubtedly the heavy-ground has affected their play, but surely no-one wishes them to change their style. For the first time for some years we consider we have a fine footballing side.

Occasionally spectators (and we look upon them as some of our most enthusiastic supporters) complain about the play, and implore the lads to "Kick it! Get rid of it." Please, please let the lads continue with their academic football. Conditions have handicapped the team, but the ultimate result is sure to be a good one.

Many of our supporters still remember with justifiable pride, the game at Bristol early in the season (what a pity it was not played at Swindon). The team that evening produced a superb display. Whilst we cannot expect such an exhibition every match, we are quite sure the boys will, on many occasions, almost reach the same heights of skill and ability. Please be patient, encourage the lads to continue playing good combined football. Other young lads are coming to the fore, and will soon be knocking at the door for a place in the first team. Our Reserve team at Shrewsbury was made up of young players, and they produced a very bright entertaining display. After being one down at half-time they fought back and equalised with an excellent goal scored by Smart from a centre by Darcy. Unfortunately Shrewsbury scored two goals in the last ten minutes to win the match. The Swindon side included two lads sixteen years of age, and four eighteen year old lads.

We feel all we want now is a drying wind, and a firm pitch, and then Hey Presto!

Our Visitors

BRENTFORD F.C.

The post-war years have not been happy ones for Brentford and they have slumped from First to Third Division status. But since Manager Malcolm MacDonald took over three years ago, their fortunes have improved and they have not finished below sixth position, twice missing promotion by only one place. Most of the present team are products of the fine Junior side the Club fielded some ten years ago. One of Mr. MacDonald's first tasks was to re-organise the recruitment of local talent with the result that a new flow of youngsters is coming on into the Reserve and 'A' teams.

PEN PICTURES OF THE PLAYERS

GERRY CAKEBREAD (Goalkeeper).

Former Junior who turned professional in June 1955. An ever-present last season, Gerry is a part-time player who works as a draughtsman in the Admiralty. Has made over 200 League appearances.

KEN COOTE (Left Back).

In his 12th season with the Club which he joined from Wembley Town in 1949, he has been a model of consistency and versatility having operated in eight positions and made nearly 400 senior appearances—a club record.

Manager MacDonald's first signing in July 1957 from Fulham. His career has been dogged by illness and injury but he has, nevertheless, nearly 150 League outings to his credit.

Founded in 1888, Brentford embraced professionalism in 1900 and joined the Third Division on its formation in 1920. Six years later, Mr. Harry Curtis became Manager and by a series of shrewd deals built up a side that won promotion in 1933, and only two years later fought its way into the First Division. In the immediate pre-war years, Brentford fielded many internationals including Billy Scott and Leslie Smith (England), Dave McCulloch, Joe Crozier and Duncan McKenzie (Scotland), Dai Hopkins (Wales), and Bill Gorman (Ireland).

In 1947 Brentford returned to the Second Division and seven years later in 1954 to the Third. This season they have changed their colours from red and white to their original strip of amber and blue.

IAN DARGY (Centre Half).

6ft. 2in. tall and very dominant in air. Ian has had several serious injuries but always came back fighting. A broken leg at Easter 1959 terminated a consecutive run of 104 matches. He returned to League action for the last 20 games last season. Signed in 1952 from Tunbridge Wells.

BILLY GOUNDRY (Right Half).

Spotted by Brentford in Army football in 1955 and after playing on wing and at inside forward, switched with success to half back. Billy's native Yorkshire grit is evident in his play and is a difficult player to pass. Over 100 League games to date.

JOHN HALES (Outside Left).

Secured from Glasgow Junior Club, St. Rochs, and is now in his third season. Operates on either flank; scored three times in 18 League games last term.

An ever-present during each of the past two seasons. He holds Brentford's record of consecutive appearances. His brain engineers many raids yet has scored nearly 50 League goals in his career. Signed in October 1953 from Cardiff City.

GEORGE FRANCIS (Centre Forward).

This dashing leader had his best season last term, netting 31 times. Has over a century of goals in 200-odd outings. Another former junior.

Like Francis an ex-junior and prolific goal-scorer. Holds Brentford record for most goals in club's history and shares record with trainer Jack Holliday of 37 in a season.

TOM HIGGINSON (Left Half).

Signed as an inside forward in 1959 from Manager MacDonald's previous Club Kilmarnock. Converted to wing half and is a 90-minute player.

JOHN DOCHERTY (Outside Right).

Another Scot who made his debut last September. Fast, tricky and not afraid to shoot.

Notes

As we write these notes we learn that the Chairman of our Club, Mr. W. Mitchell, is about to enter hospital for an operation. We wish him well and hope soon to see him again in his usual place at the County Ground.

Like the writer, who had a spell in hospital in December, Mr. Mitchell will no doubt listen to the commentary on this afternoon's match, and we trust that his experience will be happier than our own, for we heard the commentary on the Coventry City match, when nothing went right for the Town.

On that occasion, despite the fact that the Town were apparently below usual form and lost the match, the commentary was greatly appreciated, and there proved to be a good proportion of supporters in the Ward.

We would remind supporters of the Club Dance to be held on Friday, 27th January.

"Doctor Crock and his Crack-pots" will be in attendance, supported by the Christopher Paul Dance Orchestra.

Tickets may be obtained from members of the Committee and cost 12/6 (single) and one guinea (double).

We trust that the weather will be kinder to Brentford for today's visit, and that, on this occasion, it will be possible for the match to be played.

In the past Brentford have had many outstanding personalities in their teams including, at one time, Fred Fox, a former Swindon Schoolboy goalkeeper, who after retiring from active participation in the game, became a Director of the Town Club for a while.

Then there was, even earlier, Pat Hendren, the England footballer and cricketer, a great friend of our own Harold Fleming.

The writer remembers, as a small boy, seeing these two players strolling around the touchline, chatting, with the referee frantically blowing his whistle for them to come to the middle to "toss the coin," and commence the game.

Both then were nearing the end of long and honourable careers, and both will be remembered with affection and admiration.

Holders of "lucky programmes" on 31st December were: 36, Mr. H. J. Taylor, Notton Lodge Farm, Lacock. 2095, not claimed.
