F.A. Cup semi-finalists
1908, 1936, 1958, 1962.

WE ARE planning a victory party tomorrow—in Guernsey. All we need now is to make sure we have something to celebrate.

This mid-season break was planned during the summer and until a few days ago it may have seemed a bit pointless to be flying South.

But now that winter has arrived at last the wisdom of migrating to somewhere a little warmer becomes apparent.

We play there on Tuesday evening against local club Vale Recreation and are due to return on Thursday.

Then we are off to Norwich for a League match with the leaders followed by another tough away game with Queens Park Rangers in the F.A. Cup. Let us hope the trip provides just the tonic.

Well, we've had the season of goodwill and the impression is that this has been going on for most of the football season with gifts galore.

Let us console ourselves with the knowledge that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

And since it is now New Year and the time for resolutions, let us make one to reverse the policy.

At Millwall it was all so reminiscent of other recent occasions. Don't take our word. We aim for impartiality but it is sometimes difficult.

However Alex Bannister of the Daily Mail has no reason to take sides and he made his views quite clear.

In his newspaper, teams are awarded marks out of ten for what they term 'Entertainment Value'. He decided to give each team seven marks—and since winning is part of entertainment it is obvious which club he thought better to watch.

That was our impression, too. We were as good as them most of the time and better than them for much of it. Yet we finished on the wrong end of the biggest defeat of the day.

They took their chances and we did not . . . and where have you heard that story before?

Our reserve team has been performing more than satisfactorily and our youth team have brought off some fine coups recently.

Their latest was to reach the final of the South East Counties League Cup by beating Millwall who have one of the best youth squads in the country at the moment.

The final opponents will be Arsenal or Chelsea at a venue to be decided by the Management committee.

WELCOME TO SWINDON

WHY

THE WHISTLE WENT 13

A player will not necessarily be penalised for being in an off-side position.

Law 11 makes a point which increasingly goes unobserved. It reads: "A player in an off-side position shall not be penalised unless, in the opinion of the Referee, he is interfering with the play or with an opponent, or is seeking to gain an advantage by being in an off-side position."

The key word is 'seeking', rather than 'liable' to gain an advantage. As in so many other cases in our game intention is, or should be, the guiding factor.

Ken Coton's picture parade

THERE'S no doubt about it, we're playing some great football these days. Ask Millwall! Until that fateful last 20 minutes they would have gladly settled for a draw.

Photo right shows a first-half first-time shot on the turn from Roger Cross which the goalkeeper scrambled away at the foot of a post.

The photo below shows another near miss. Jimmy Conway heads a centre down and across the goalmouth, but the ball just didn't go to one of our players.

Our goal (below right) was a beauty. Following a move the length of the field, Fred Callaghan passed to Barry Lloyd, who from the side of the penalty-area brilliantly floated the ball over and round the goalkeeper. (In the picture Barry is almost completely hidden by the keeper.) A memorable goal.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

It's not often that you see nine goals in a match, but within 17 days around Christmas 1956, Fulham featured in two nine-goal extravaganzas!

The first was at the Cottage on December 26th when we beat Blackburn by 7 goals to 2. Our team that day was: Ian Black; Ken Collins, Robin Lawler, Jimmy Hill, Derek Lampe, Eddie Lowe, Arthur Stevens, Roy Bentley, Roy Dwight, Johnny Haynes and Trevor Chamberlain.

Our scorers were Tosh Chamberlain with a hat-trick, Roy Bentley with two, and Roy Dwight with two.

The other nine-goal match was at Vetch Field against Swansea Town on January 12th, and we won by 5 goals to 4.

At one stage we were leading by 5—1, but with defender John Chenhall a passenger for all the second half because of a badly pulled muscle, Swansea struck back, but we held on to win.

Our goals came from Roy Dwight

(3) and Trevor Chamberlain. What was remarkable was that Roy had scored a hat-trick against Swansea at home earlier that season.

And the programme writer wondered whether any other player had scored a hat-trick against the same side in both League matches in one season.

And as a sign of the times, here's an item which appeared in the programme for that Blackburn Rovers match:

We would like to say how pleased we are that League match bonuses have been increased. Players now receive £3 for a win instead of £2 and £1 10s. for a draw instead of £1—a rise which we have advocated for some time. As Football Combination bonuses have always been 50 per cent of League bonuses we anticipate that they, too, will be proportionately increased.

Inside the Cottage

CONGRATULATIONS

yet again to Jimmy Conway on another cap for his country, the Republic of Ireland.

We were interested to see a programme of Jimmy's old club, Bohemians, sent in by Mr. C. Skelton of 11 Grassway, Wallington, Surrey.

Captain of the 'Boh's' team is John Fullam. As Mr. Skelton says, "No wonder Jimmy was influenced to join the 'cream' of London".

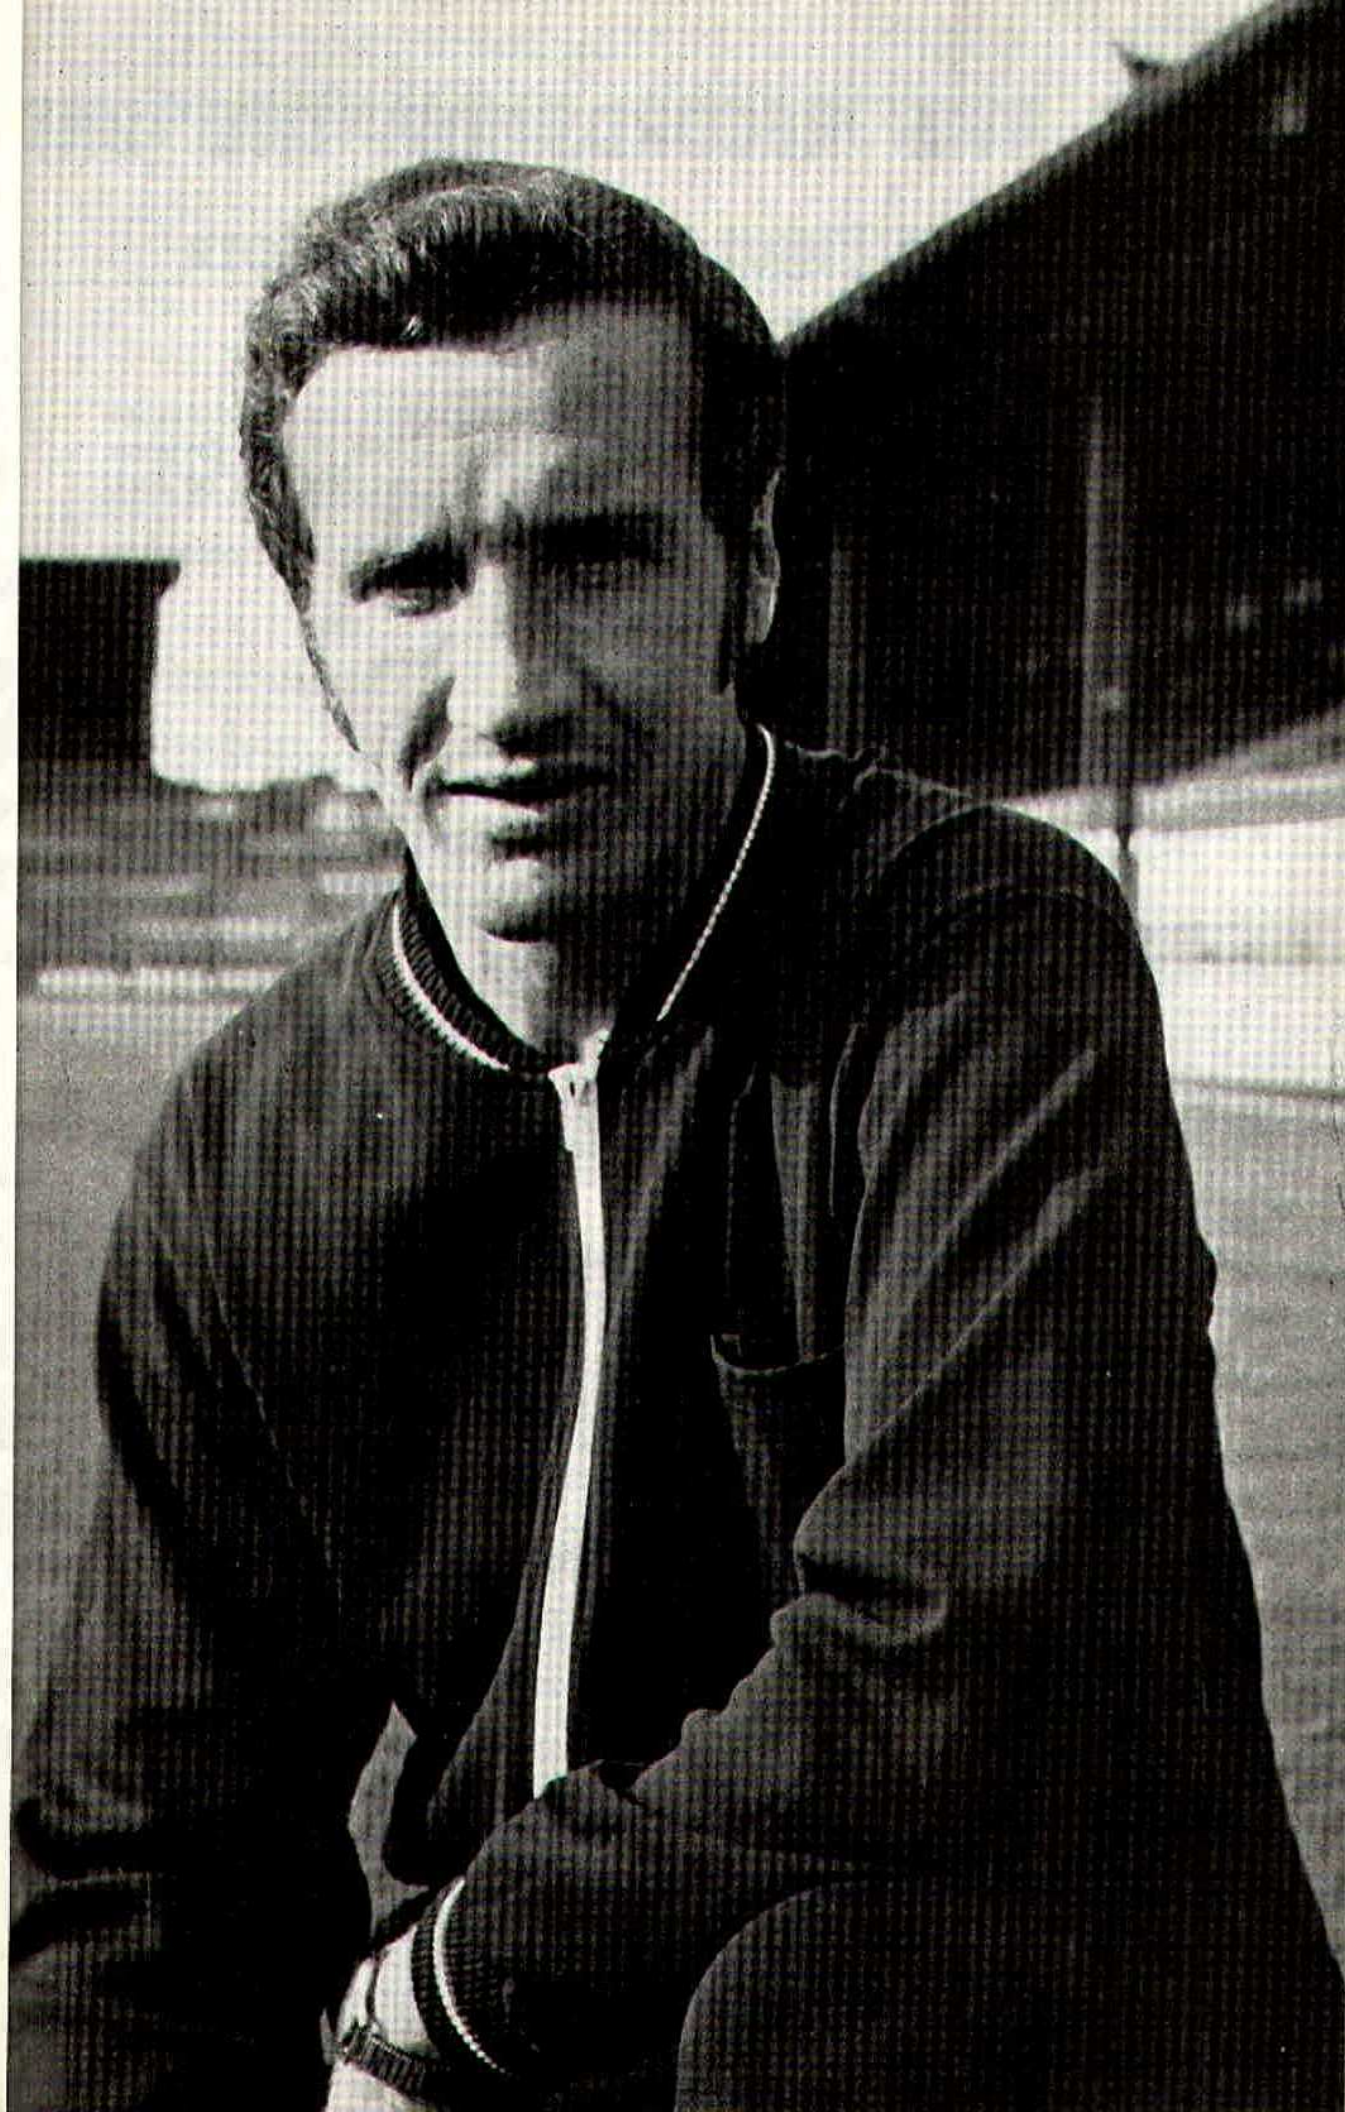

HAPPY RETURN

West London Schools played their last English Schools' Trophy match here and could only draw 2—2 with Hillingdon. Yet they won the replay 4—0!

Now they face Reading for a place in the last 16 and have arranged the tie again at Craven Cottage on January 8th, kick off 10.45 a.m.

Don't miss it. They are good to watch.

Bill Taylor, our trainer coach (pictured right), has settled into his new home at Cheam with his wife and daughter.
